

HARVEY HELM WINS A GREAT VICTORY.

Lincoln County Congressman Carries Every County in the District in Primary.

As predicted by the Interior Journal from first to last Harvey Helm, Lincoln county's favorite son, won a magnificent victory for re-nomination for Congress in the primary which was held Saturday. He swept the Eighth district from stem to stern, rolling up a majority which will go over 8,000 votes when the returns are all in. He carried Madison county, the home and supposed stronghold of his opponent, Judge Sullivan, receiving a majority there of over 300 votes.

The victory was a notable one in every particular, when the race is reviewed, and the elements opposed to the nomination of Mr. Helm are considered. His great majority proves how completely he holds the confidence of his democratic constituents in this district, and augurs well, indeed, for an overwhelming victory over his republican opponent in November.

A notable feature of his victory was the splendid majorities returned for him in the two new counties of the district, Adair and Casey. It had been declared in some quarters that these counties were brought in to the district for the purpose of hurting him, and furthering the aspiration of some other candidate. The democratic voters of those counties, however, took cognizance of the work that Helm has done for his district, and showed up with a majority which will go close to 1,000 for the two.

Lincoln county, of course, did nobly by him, only 82 votes being cast in the county against him, out of a total of over 1,800 votes cast in the primary. His majority in this county was 1,652. Helm's majorities in the other counties of the district were about as follows, the official count probably making some little change:

Adair 518, Anderson 650, Mercer 600, Jessamine 433, Garrard 547, Boyle 975, Casey 400, Spencer 409, Madison 360, Shelby 939.

It is reported that Judge Sullivan did not carry but seven precincts in the entire district.

Judge Sullivan, as the loyal democrat that he is, soon saw on Saturday night that the trend was all against him, and sent this telegram to Mr. Helm here:

Richmond, August 3.—Hon. Harvey Helm, Stanford, Ky.—Reports indicate that you have been nominated. I congratulate you. My friends are for any man who receives a democratic nomination. (Signed) J. A. Sullivan.

Congressman Helm was flooded with congratulatory messages from all over the district and the state. A message came from Shelby county where his friends had done some work that they were now boosting him for next democratic nomination for governor, so splendidly had he run.

John Nichols and H. C. Bright, who had led in the fight for him in Boyle county, drove over Sunday to congratulate him. They had carried Boyle for him by almost a thousand in the face of the bitter opposition of the Danville Advocate. Editor McIntyre, who will support Helm as vigorously now as he opposed him, telephoned the Interior Journal that he is for Helm not only for the nomination again next time.

An automobile full of gallant democrats from Adair came up late Sunday afternoon to congratulate the congressman and report to him of the splendid majority that Adair had rolled up for him, in the face of strong opposition. They were L. C. Winfrey, Col. N. M. Tutt, N. T. Mercer, J. S. Breeding and Wm. Helm.

Opponent for Caleb Powers.

In the convention held by the Progressives of the Eleventh district at Corbin last week H. H. Seavey, of Corbin, an engineer on the Cumberland Valley division of the Louisville & Nashville, railroad won out over J. V. Bird, of Whitley county; Charles Herd, of Middlesboro, and former Congressman J. D. Wilson of Knox County for the congressional nomination against Caleb Powers.

The fight was one of the closest ever seen in that county. Wild enthusiasm followed the announcement of the last ballot, and on motion was made unanimous. Mr. Seavey was carried to the stage and introduced as the next Congressman from the Eleventh District.

Teddy's Bull Moose party is holding its national convention at Chicago.

NINETEEN ENTRIES IN COLT FUTURITY.

Great Interest Among Horsemen In Feature Stake of K. of P. Fair.

The showing being made by many youngsters at the various fairs in this section of the state so far this season, has accentuated the interest which is being manifested among horse breeders in the great Colt Futurity to be decided at the Knights of Pythias Fair here August 21, 22 and 23. There are 19 entries in the Futurity, and some of the colts which have already been shown on other fair rings are making great records. When the bugle calls the blue blooded youngsters to the post at the Stanford fair a tremendous assemblage of horse lovers is expected to be present to witness the event.

The list of the entrants, shows the names of some of the most successful horsemen in this part of the state, and the colts are all splendidly bred and give great promise. The Futurity entries, the names of the owners, the name of the dam and sire are as follows:

Hail In Scott County.

Georgetown, Aug. 6.—A hail storm unsurpassed in severity by any that ever fell here, raged over Georgetown and Scott county last night with such strength that several tobacco crops were ruined and other crops were damaged. In many cases ice remained on the ground until this morning in streets. The damage to crops will reach several thousand dollars.

Now is the time hail does it severest damage. Insure now and feel easy. R. M. Newland.

Congressman Bob Thomas defeated John S. Rhea for the democratic nomination in the Third District by 190 majority. County Judge A. W. Barkley, of McCreary won the nomination in the First District to fill Ollie James' seat, by 4,000 majority over three other contestants.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ella May Saunders gave a birthday party Monday evening from four to six for her nephew, William Shelby Coffey, of Frankfort. The refreshments were lemonade and cakes and ice cream cones. MERCER AND GARRARD DEFEAT WILL BURCH Lincoln County Gives Him Big Majority—Holdam, Fields and Dillon Winners.

Lincoln county couldn't win everything in the primary Saturday. A great many of her democrats deeply regretted to see Will Burch go down in defeat as a candidate for the nomination for Commonwealths Attorney. They say, however, that he made a great race in the face of odds which were almost overwhelming. He not only had to make the fight of his life in other counties, but had a bitter fight waged against him in his home county, but came up with the big majority of 912 in Lincoln. Boyle went for Judge Puryear by about 800, however, Mercer gave him 400, and Garrard went against Burch by 227, making the total majority against him of about 550.

Friends of Burch are very proud of the majority given him in his home county, and are already urging him to announce his candidacy for the nomination for County Attorney in the primary next year. It is believed that he will soon accede to their wishes, and it is not believed that he will have opposition for re-nomination.

The race for the democratic nomination for circuit clerk of Lincoln county was won by James F. Holdam the incumbent, over two opponents. This was a very interesting race, and not until the last precincts were reported was it decided.

The magistrate's race in Stanford district and that for the republican nomination in the Crab Orchard district, were both very close, and were won only by a margin of eight votes each for the winner. W. M. Fields, of the Somerset pike, one of the best known farmers in the county, and highly respected by everyone, beat "Uncle Joe" Goode in the Stanford district, with J. D. Eads and J. T. Roberts finishing in the order named. Russ Dillon won out over John Kennedy with John Corum and J. T. Culton finishing in order given at Crab Orchard.

This was the first direct primary held in Lincoln county, or the state for that matter and it passed off quietly and well. A large vote was polled in this county on account of the interest in several of the races. Outside of the Crab Orchard precincts a very small vote was cast, on account of there being no contests. J. W. Dinsmore was on the republican ballot as a candidate for congress, and having no opposition got very few votes. Marshall Newland was the only candidate for the democratic nomination for Magistrate in the Crab Orchard district.

Paint Lick

Miss Louise Jesson, of Corbin, is visiting Miss Chastine Rucker.

Miss Sallie Woods has returned from attending the Lancaster fair. The protracted meeting at New Hope closed Sunday night.

Rev. Faulkner, of Lancaster, preached at Old Paint Lick last Sunday.

Miss Almer Lear and Miss Grace Kline, are at Crab Orchard.

Rice G. Woods, cashier of the People's Bank, has bought about 10 acres of land near the new school building and proposes to sell it off in lots to persons to send their children to school.

T. S. Burnham has in store here three car loads of barley and has been offered 75 cents per bushel. The oat and hay crop are fine in our vicinity.

Mrs. I. C. Rucker has gone to Richmond, to be treated for a month.

Geo. Todd bought a part of the Press, Griffith farm at $51 per acre.

Miracle Goes to Chair August 30.

Cal Miracle, the Bell county murderer, is condemned to die Friday, August 30. Miracle was convicted last October, and sentenced to electrocution March 20 last, but took an appeal. The Court of Appeals affirmed the verdict, and Gov. McCreary last week signed the death warrant. Miracle is to be electrocuted at the Eddyville penitentiary.

Miracle's crime was apparently unprovoked, and a strong effort was made to secure commutation of his sentence on the ground that he was insane. He killed a man named Jones near Pineville, and then walked through the town and along to the Straight Creek road, where he met the father of his victim in company with Dulcie Partin and another woman. He announced that he had just killed Jones. The Partin woman screamed and attempted to flee. Miracle started toward her, and when she hid behind the other woman, Miracle reached over the woman's shoulder and shot Dulcie Partin to death.

"I was cured of diarrhoea by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy", writes M. E. Gebhardt, Oriole, Pa. There is nothing better. For sale by Penny's Drug Store.

LAKE MORGAN

It's a mighty nice thing to be on the winning side when an election rolls round, and hear the nice things that are said after it is all over. It's not nearly so pleasant to taste the sting of defeat and see one's hopes go glimmering. Especially is this so, if the battle has been hard fought and the contest partaken of bitterness. That is the time when the loyalty of a candidate and his friends to his party is truest tested. The message of congratulation to Congressman Helm from Judge Sullivan, tendering his congratulations and assurance of support, coming as it did from Judge Sullivan in the darkest hour of defeat, when a life time of ambition and aspirations seemed to have been blasted, proved him the loyal democrat and game fighter that we have always believed him. He took his medicine like a man. The Interior Journal has ever had the highest regard for Judge Sullivan. He has long been our personal friend, and we regretted that he was the man chosen by the opposition in their efforts to retire Congressman Helm. We foresaw his defeat from the first. We rejoice exceedingly at the splendid triumph of Congressman Helm, our home man, our neighbor and our life time friend. We made the best fight for him that we knew how against another personal friend, but such are the vicissitudes of politics. But we are glad that our confidence in the quality of Judge Sullivan's democracy was not misplaced and are confident that he will be fighting for victory as hard in November, as he would have been, had the story been otherwise.

And in this connection, we want to commend the course adopted by our good friends of the Danville Advocate. No paper ever made a more determined effort on behalf of a candidate than it for Judge Sullivan. It left no stone unturned in his behalf, but like a true democrat, it now comes out strong for the winner, saying in its issue Monday: "The Advocate opposed Congressman Helm for the nomination but nobody is stronger for him now than we are. Practically everyone took sides. Some worked at the polls, others through newspapers and still others by attempting to privately show reasons why their favorite should win. The Advocate, like Bryan, believes in every good democrat taking a firm stand in the open and then join the majority after the fight is over. When everybody stands out for what they believe is right, the aspect for good government is more encouraging. provided they all unite with the majority after the race is run. Congressman Helm will not have a warmer supporter among the newspapers of the district than the Advocate. We congratulate him upon his tremendous victory."

In Loving Memory of William Kincaid Buchanan

The sad news of the death of William Kincaid Buchanan will carry sorrow to many a heart besides those of his immediate family for he was widely known and held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. His death occurred in Louisville, Ky., July 1 1912. He was born in Tazewell, Tenn., June 12, 1856, being fifty six years of age at his death. He joined the Christian church in the early part of his married life and lived up to its teachings. After moving to Louisville he and family put themselves under the watch care of the Methodist Church South, in which church his membership remained until his death. He leaves a wife and four boys to mourn a loving husband and the kindest father. They are William Walter, James Ashley, Thomas Hill and Charles Parrish Buchanan. He was a man of unselfish disposition, generous and honorable, considerate of the feelings of others. No one ever applied to him for help that did not receive part of what he had. He gave up his entire estate for what he deemed honor and principle. He has left a stainless name as a legacy to his children. In his whole being there was no element of littleness. He was faithful as a friend, all that a loving husband and indulgent father could be, and the rich legacy of a good name is a soothing value to those who mourn his loss. May God give the weeping wife and sorrowing children the grace to feel that he was taken for some wise purpose, and make them feel that the husband and father is not dead but waiting just beyond to clasp them again in his arms and say that there is no more death no more parting, all is peace and joy for his last words were that he was ready and without fear. Such a triumphant Christian death is a beautiful tribute to the life he lived.

A Kidney Remedy Advertisement Brought Great Happiness

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I was greatly benefitted by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son, when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am

NOW A MILLIONAIRE

John Smith, Who Started His Career in This Town, Returns to the Scene of His Youth.

FORTUNE BUILT FROM SAVINGS.

Thirty years ago John Smith was a messenger boy in this town. Starting to save at the rate of a dime a week, which he increased as he grew older he accumulated enough in time, to enter business for himself. With the habit of saving so ingrained in him as to be second nature, he thrift so increased his business as that he had no open places all over the country. The largeness of the concern finally necessitated the removal of the headquarters to New York. But Mr. Smith has now returned to his native town to live in his magnificent new residence on South Avenue. We are proud of him. He is a model of what the young labor will do.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die."

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Gentlemen: I have an "OLD HICKORY" wagon that I have had in steady use for 25 years and the wagon is in good condition. I often put a load of six thousand pounds on this wagon and haul over rough ground. It has never been broken under cover. Yours truly, J. A. BAILEY.

Do you think the "OLD HICKORY" wagon could possibly have served Mr. Bailey so well, lasted through so many years of constant use, carried such excessive loads, stood the abuse it received, and done it all in so thoroughly satisfactory a manner, if it had not been manufactured out of the finest selected timber in the world for sales, hubs, spokes, felloes, hounds, bolsters, reaches and beds, and then every part built exactly right? They are Easy Runners and hold the grease well.

AS GOOD WAGONS ARE NOT MADE AT ANY PRICE and it will pay you to examine the "OLD HICKORY" before you buy.
